BLACK-DRAUGHT tea cures Constipation.

William Astor's funeral took place at Trinity Chapel in New York City, May 12th. The services were very simple. Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, the rector of the church, performed the ceremony.

McEree's WINE OF CARDUI for Weak Nerves.

Mrs. L. R. Patton, Rockford, Ill., writes: "From personal experience I can recommend De Witt's Sarsaparilla, a cure for impure blood and general debility." A. Brandenberger.

Colman's Rural World thinks that Missouri is to be the banner sheep state of the union. Our fertile soil, genial climate, rolling land, running streams of pure water, good home market for both mutton and wool, and fondness of our people for this kind of stock favor this idea.

Try BLACK-DRAUGHT tea for Dyspepsia.

Word comes from Gainesville, Texas, of a cyclone that swept through Greer county that unroofed dugouts and lifted people out and carried them over the prairie for a long distance. Five persons were killed and ten others fatally injured.

A mother's mistake.

Mothers frequently make a mistake in neglecting the cough of a child. A Fort Wayne, Ind., lady writes: My little daughter 6 years old had a severe cough but as it was nothing unusual I thought nothing of it, and allowed it to run on for 4 or 5 weeks, when it became so obstinate she began losing flesh. I called in a physician who treated her three weeks without benefit. A neighbor insisted upon me trying Ballard's Horehound Syrup; it relieved her from the first dose and she began gaining flesh rapidly, when we had used two bottles her cough had entirely disappeared. I would not be without it. It does not constipate my children. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is free from opiates. It's the most soothing throat and lung medicine in the world. Price 50c. and $1.00. Sold by A. Brandenberger.

The Creede Camp Excitement.

Creede Camp promises to become a second Leadville. The number of people going into this wonderful camp is unprecedented in the history of Colorado, except only during the Leadville excitement. It is estimated that now the townsite is located, that there will be ten thousand people in the camp by June 1. The new discovery is only reached by the Denver and Rio Grande railroad.
